

111 SUTTER STREET
SUITE 700
SAN FRANCISCO
CA 94104
415 464 4300 T
415 464 4336 F

Joseph P. Mascovich Special Counsel

Joe Mascovich has specialized in appellate practice for more than 20 years, and has handled more than two hundred appeals and writes in all districts of the California Court of Appeal, the California Supreme Court, and the Ninth Circuit. The appeals have involved numerous areas of the law, including wrongful termination, employment discrimination, the FELA, products liability, other personal injury, insurance coverage and bad faith, commercial disputes, real estate, and state and federal regulatory disputes.

Education

J.D., 1980 – University of California, Hastings College of the Law; San Francisco, CA – Order of the Coif

A.B., 1977 – University of California, Berkeley; Berkeley, CA

Prior Law Firm Affiliations

Reed Smith LLP

Crosby Heafey Roach & May
(now Reed Smith)

Spears, Lubersky, Campbell &
Bledsoe (now Lane Powell)

Professional Recognition

Named a “Super Lawyer” by Super Lawyers – Northern California magazine each year since 2005

Bar Admissions

California

Affiliations and Activities

Certified Specialist in Appellate Law, California State Bar Board of Legal Specialization

California Academy of Appellate Lawyers, Member

Boalt Hall Advanced Appellate Advocacy Program, Clinical Instructor

Publications

January 2012, The Recorder:
“More Wrinkles in the Wage Theft Act”

July 2011, The Recorder:
“Plaintiffs Score Wage-and-Hour Win”

CEB, California Civil Appellate Practice (3d ed.), Author of chapter on Rehearing in the Court of Appeal