Jennifer Cotner

Associate

Ms. Cotner has extensive experience representing employers in all aspects of employment litigation, including holding strategic roles in wage and hour class actions and single and multi-plaintiff wrongful termination, discrimination and harassment cases in state and federal court. She has successfully defended employers before administrative agencies on discrimination and wage claims and has co-chaired a patent trial defense in federal district court. Ms. Cotner's employment litigation experience is complemented by a background in general commercial, intellectual property and antitrust litigation. Additionally, Ms. Cotner has advised clients in a variety of workplace concerns, including terminations, handbook policies, wage and hour issues, reasonable accommodations and leaves of absence.
